ARTICLE APPEARED ON PAGE

NEW YORK TIMES 5 July 1985

FILE ONLY

Americans Make Appeal

BEIRUT, July 4 (AP) - Relatives of four of the seven Americans still missing in Lebanon appeared in a 10-minute television program today to plead for their release.

"I appeal to you in the name of God to release my husband," said the wife of the Rev. Benjamin Weir, a Presbyterian minister who was kidnapped in West Beirut on May 8.

Judith Blouin, a sister of the chief Middle East correspondent for The Associated Press, Terry A. Anderson, who was abducted on March 16, said, "Please, in the name of God that we all worship, please release my brother."

Photographs Are Shown

Arabic translations of their remarks were read as they spoke. Photographs than a definite group of people. Nabih of the missing Americans victims ap- Berri, the Shiite Amal leader, said in peared on the screen. The state-run sta. provided by the Presidential Palace.

Relatives of Peter Kilburn and the holding the Americans. Rev. Lawrence Martin Jenco also appeared on the program.

seven who have vanished in West Bei. War, believed to be made up of pro-Iranian Shiite Moslems, took responsibil. ity for the abductions and demanded the release of 17 men jailed in Kuwait tioned him. for the December 1983 bombings of the United States and French Embassies and of other installations there.

warned Wednesday that the seven Americans would face "a black fate" if American University Hospital, kidthe United States moved against Shiite napped last May 28, and Thomas Suthhijackers of the T.W.A. jetliner.

say Islamic Holy War is a cause rather napped on June 9.

an interview on ABC News on Wednestion's management said the film was day that he thought the militant Shiite group known as the Party of God was Father Jenco, a Roman Catholic priest, was kidnapped last Jan. 8. Mr. The four Americans were among Kilburn, a librarian at the American University of Beirut, failed to report rut since March 1984. Islamic Holy for work on Dec. 3, 1984; some statements made in the name of Islamic Holy War have said he was kidnapped, and other statements have not men-

The other three Americans missing in West Beirut are William Buckley, 57, a political officer at the United States A statement from Islamic Holy War Embassy, kidnapped March 16, 1984; erland, 53, dean of agriculture at the Some Lebanese leaders, however, American University of Beirut, kid-